JBC | PRIVACY POLICY
Last updated: October 2026

1. Introduction

FGFC Markets Global Ltd (the "Company", "we", "us" or "our"), operating under the JBC trading brand, is committed to protecting the privacy and personal data of its clients and Website visitors. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, disclose and protect personal data when you visit www.jbandconners.com (the "Website"), register for a trading Account, use our trading Platform or Services, or communicate with us.

We process personal data in accordance with applicable data protection laws, including the applicable Mauritius Data Protection Act, as amended from time to time, where applicable.

2. Personal Data We Collect

We may collect personal data necessary to provide our Services and meet our legal and regulatory obligations, including:

- Identification and contact information: name, date of birth, nationality, residential address, email address, telephone number and identification documents.
- Financial and account information: payment details, source of funds, financial circumstances, Trading Account details, transaction history and trading activity.
- Verification information: documents and information required for Know Your Customer (KYC), Anti-Money Laundering (AML), fraud prevention and regulatory compliance.
- Technical information: IP address, device identifiers, browser details, cookies, login records and Website or trading Platform usage information.
- Communications: enquiries, correspondence, complaints and records of communications with the Company.

Personal data may be collected directly from you, automatically through our systems or from authorised third parties where permitted by applicable law.

3. How We Use Your Personal Data

The Company may process personal data to:

- Open, verify, administer and maintain trading Accounts.
- Provide access to the Website, trading Platform and Services.
- Process deposits, withdrawals and trading transactions.
- Conduct KYC/AML checks and comply with legal and regulatory requirements.
- Prevent fraud, unauthorised access and other prohibited activities.
- Respond to enquiries, complaints and service requests.
- Maintain records, improve security and support the operation of our Services.
- Send service-related communications and, where permitted, marketing communications.

We process personal data where necessary to perform our contractual obligations, comply with applicable laws, pursue legitimate business interests or act on your consent where consent is required.

4. Disclosure and Protection of Personal Data

The Company may share personal data, where necessary and lawful, with banks, payment service providers, identity verification providers, technology and platform service providers, professional advisers, regulators, law enforcement authorities and other authorised third parties.

We require appropriate confidentiality and security measures from service providers handling personal data on our behalf.

The Company implements reasonable technical and organisational safeguards to protect personal data against unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, loss or misuse. However, no electronic system or transmission method can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

5. International Data Transfers
Where necessary for the provision of our Services or compliance with legal obligations, personal data may be transferred to or processed in jurisdictions outside Mauritius. Such transfers shall be carried out subject to applicable legal requirements and appropriate safeguards.

6. Retention of Personal Data
We retain personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to provide our Services, maintain business records, resolve disputes and satisfy applicable legal, regulatory, AML/KYC and recordkeeping obligations. When personal data is no longer required, it will be securely deleted, anonymised or otherwise disposed of in accordance with applicable law.

7. Your Data Protection Rights
Subject to applicable law, you may have the right to request access to, correction or deletion of your personal data; object to or request restriction of certain processing activities; request data portability where applicable; and withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

These rights may be subject to legal exceptions, including circumstances where the Company is required to retain information for regulatory or compliance purposes.

To exercise your rights or raise a privacy-related concern, please contact info@jbandconners.com.

8. Cookies
The Website may use cookies and similar technologies to support its functionality, maintain security, analyse usage and improve user experience. Strictly necessary cookies may be used to operate the Website. Where required by applicable law, optional cookies will be used only after obtaining your consent. You may manage your cookie preferences through the Website's cookie settings, where available, or your browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect Website functionality.

9. Changes to This Policy
The Company may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in its Services, business practices or applicable legal requirements. The latest version will be published on the Website with the relevant update date.
